La libertad en Leibniz (Spanish Edition) Theresa Marx

Seminar paper del año 2010 en el tema Filosofía - Filosofía de los siglos XVII y XVIII, Nota: 2,0, Universidad de La Laguna Tenerife, Idioma: Español, Resumen: La teoría sobre la libertad de Leibniz intenta unificar la posibilidad de la voluntad libre con un cierto determinismo. La definición de la libertad no basta en la ausencia de coacción externa, sino también hay que poder excluir la necesidad absoluta (metafísica). La alternativa a esa necesidad muchas veces se ha considerado la indiferencia del equilibrio, pero esto no es la posición que defiende Leibniz – el parte del concepto de los motivos suficientes para la voluntad humana libre. Para él, el principio de la razón suficiente es el primer principio de todos los razonamientos de los seres humanos.
