After the Rain (The Callahans Book 1) Jennifer Hayden

Childhood tragedy and a sheltered past have cocooned Kylie Rhodes in her hometown of Riverdale, Montana for most of her twenty-six years. Only after a bad break up, does she decide it's high time she see what else the world has to offer. The perfect opportunity arises when her best friend, Faye, invites her to visit Callahan, Arizona, where she is living with her fiancé and his family. Throwing caution to the wind, Kylie embarks on a road trip that ultimately changes the entire course of her life. The minute she arrives in Callahan, she realizes it is some place special. She immediately falls in love with the small town and its inhabitants, including Sheriff Trey Callahan. Both Trey and Kylie have tumultuous backgrounds, filled with betrayal and loss. While the attraction between them grows stronger every day, neither trusts easily. As the summer goes on, time begins to heal the wounds of their pasts. In each other, they find hope and solace. They find the will to give love a second chance. But danger lurks in the background, eventually rearing its ugly head. Both Kylie and Trey are forced to face the remnants of their pasts in order to save their future.

This is Book 1 in a fantastic 4 book romantic suspense series by Jennifer Hayden. In the Eye of the Storm, Aftershock and Less Than Perfect are available now.
