Down Low Love Huntsville [Gay Black / MM Short Story] Spartacus Damrod

Still recovering from the odd events and non-break-up with Ty, EJ is back in Seattle and trying to settle into life. His old job took him back and, for once, he has had good news on the financial front – now if only he could find honest love. In typical EJ fashion, he takes a long chance on a bet that may turn sour – quitting his job and packing up to live in Alabama with Travis, a man with the right looks, the right phrases and possibly the right kind of heart. With the heat crawling at his back and home sickness nipping at his heels, can Travis really be the man EJ needs, or is this just another broken heart waiting in the wing?
