Voluptuous Pleasure: The Truth About the Writing Life (Department of Narrative Studies) Marianne Apostolides
A GLOBE & MAIL TOP 100 BOOKS OF 2012

Sensuous and smart, ambiguous but incisive in their truths - these stories take you into brothels and bedrooms, kitchens and consciousness; they seduce you along the limits of non-fiction, making you question the veracity of anything you've ever read-or even experienced. Put your trust in the language itself: you can't trust reality, not anymore. If you've ever been confused about what "creative non-fiction" is, look no further: this book defines the genre.

Praise for Marianne Apostolides's previous work:

The Lucky Child is:

"exquisitely written.... a vibrant, multilayered, image-rich book."

– The Globe & Mail

"subtle in its execution, clear in its vision, with a narration that is both incisive and heartfelt.... Its unanswered questions, both real and imagined, will haunt long after its final page is turned."

– Tess Fragoulis

Swim is:

"handled with assured grace and dynamic lucidity."

– The Globe & Mail

"a brilliantly-structured stream-of-consciousness novel... Fans of lyric prose will savour this intelligent, finely-crafted text."

– Canadian Literature
