20 Vital Keys to Coming Out as a Crossdresser Louise Allen, Jane Butt

There are plenty of stories about how transvestite and transgender women come out to friends and loved ones. Some go well and some, well ... you can imagine, some don't always work out as planned. A lot of our work with trans people has been to help them express their identity to the world. Often this includes expressing who they are to friends and loved ones.

We've identified all the key steps that lead to a successful 'coming out' and distilled them into this concise little ebook.
