The Economics of Success: Twelve Things Politicians Don't Want You to Know Eamonn Butler

In this new myth busting book Director of the Adam Smith Institute Eamon Butler describes how it is by looking to the markets, rather than to the politicians, that we will return to prosperity. Butler describes how the free market harnesses self-interest and punishes greed, how government intervention raises everybody's costs and how it is capitalism -not socialism -that has made Britain rich. In twelve eye-opening chapters, Economics of Success illustrates how capitalism is the hero of its own story.
