El zapato de la lengua rota (Novela histórica) (Spanish Edition) María Zabay

El joven Erhard, alemán de familia acomodada e íntimo amigo de Heinrich Himmler, es destinado a Polonia como espía nazi. Para ello se hará pasar por judío, llegando a practicarse la circuncisión, y se adentrará en un mundo de estrategias, manipulaciones, traiciones y engaños que terminarán de la forma menos esperada. Su vinculación con el Partido Nacional-socialista Obrero Alemán y su posterior misión permiten al lector conocer en profundidad las argucias que llevaron a Hitler al poder, y revelar la situación sociopolítica y cultural de Polonia antes de que fuese invadida por Alemania y estallase la Segunda Guerra Mundial. "El zapato de la lengua rota" es también una conmovedora historia de amor entre la judía Helena y el ario Erhard, pertenecientes a mundos enfrentados, en el momento histórico más hostil. Rigurosamente documentada hasta en los más pequeños detalles de la vida cotidiana, esta apasionante novela revela al lector todo lo que ocurrió y confluó para que un austriaco mediocre y frustrado pudiera llegar a ganar unas elecciones, y condujese a Alemania y al mundo al gran desastre que fue la Segunda Guerra Mundial.
