Lettera a un ostaggio (Raggi gialli) (Italian Edition) Antoine Saint, Exupéry

Insieme a "Terra degli uomini", "Lettera a un ostaggio" rappresenta il punto più alto dell'opera di Saint-Exupéry sia sotto il profilo letterario ed emozionale che nella visione filosofica della vita, che può riassumersi nell'affermazione: "Non c'è che un problema, uno solo, in tutto il mondo: restituire agli uomini un significato spirituale". Scritta durante il suo viaggio d'esilio verso gli Stati Uniti, in fuga dalla Francia occupata, pensando a Leon Werth, l'amico a cui aveva dedicato "Il Piccolo Principe", "Lettera a un ostaggio" nasce dalla preoccupazione dell'autore per il pericolo di un esasperarsi dell'intolleranza che la guerra aveva portato alla luce. Dietro il filo dei pensieri, si sviluppa una linea melodica costante che ha per guida l'immagine del sorriso, reso possibile dalla coscienza e dall'impegno a essere in ogni momento quello che si è, per se stessi e per la comunità in cui si è inseriti. Questo testo è stato definito "il poema della restaurazione del sorriso". Dello stesso tenore è il secondo scritto contenuto in questo volume, bisogna dare un senso alla vita degli uomini, che fa parte di una raccolta di saggi intitolata "La pace o la guerra", pubblicata originariamente su "Paris Soir"
