To Be a Friend: Building Deep and Lasting Relationships Jerry White, Mary White

Friendship is not a rational process. While reasoning and discerning play a part in our choices of friends, feelings and emotions are strong elements as well.

Much of the conscious development of our circle of friends rests on an understanding of the elements and foundations of friendship. There is no magic formula. Friendship choices rest on principles and concepts. Friendships take effort. They hold a bit of mystery. They can't be manufactured. But they are priceless.

Walk with Jerry and Mary White in To Be a Friend as they probe and discover together the great adventure of being and having friends.
