La valle della Luna (Libri da premio) (Italian Edition) Jack London

Uno dei romanzi più politici, e insieme più coinvolgenti, di Jack London. Un lungo viaggio verso la "terra promessa". Due giovani proletari, Billy e Saxon Roberts, lasciano Oakland alla ricerca di un luogo dove iniziare una nuova vita. Quel luogo è la California settentrionale, Sonoma Valley, per la quale London inventa il nome letterario di "Valle della Luna". Ritornano qui i temi cardine del grande scrittore: l'ingiustizia sociale, l'alienazione delle classi proletarie, la necessità di un riscatto che riconcili l'uomo con se stesso e con la natura. Accusato da più parti di avere idee politiche ingenue e confuse - e anche di razzismo e xenofobia verso le razze non anglosassoni - Jack London si conferma in questo straordinario romanzo un appassionato fautore di una società più giusta.
