Perros y chacales (Spanish Edition) Barbara Wood

Una novela en la que la intriga, los sentimientos humanos, el abigarrado universo del Egipto actual y los solemnes misterios de pasado se dan la mano con vivacidad y ternura.

Para Lydia Harris, todo comenzó con una llamada telefónica desde Roma de su hermana Adele. Un saludo, una invitación para reunirse con ella, el anuncio del envío de un paquete... y el silencio.

El paquete prometido era una cabeza de chacal de marfil. Una antigüedad egipcia, no excesivamente valiosa, llamada a convertirse en la clave de una intriga mortal que había de llevarse a Lydia a Roma, y de allí a Egipto, en busca de su hermana. Todo ello seguida de cerca por múltiples peligros que solo podrá sortear con la ayuda de un enigmático árabe a cuyos secretos, cultura y forma de vida deberá, mal que le pese, amoldarse.

La crítica ha dicho...

«Wood da vida a la ficción con una auténtica habilidad por el detalle y con personajes altamente memorables.»
