Jewelry designer Rory Lane needs money.

The rent on her business doubled overnight and her one of a kind designs cost a pretty penny. The solution to all of her financial problems lies in finding someone to marry, not an easy task for a woman who hasn't had sex in years and can't keep a boyfriend if her life depended on it.

She can only claim her inheritance if she gets married or on her 35th birthday, which is six months away. She'd been replaced in her previous relationships by a skinny version of herself. How depressing.

Enter her best friend, chef extraordinaire Jackson Bennett. Their friendship has spanned twenty years and there's nothing they wouldn't do to help each other out. So when Rory suggests a matchmaker to solve her problems, Jackson offers to marry his best friend.

What started as a marriage of convenience between friends would end up being something more than either of them ever expected...until a secret threatens to tear them apart.

Note: This book contains spicy love scenes and colorful language. A sweet & sexy stand alone, with no cliffhangers, and a happily ever after!

This is a short story. The stated page length includes the main book as well as a bonus collection.
