Junk email Ian C Gilbert

Who is Ian C Gilbert?! Friend to the powerful and famous, canine wedding planner, experimental baker, poet, husband, amateur bee keeper, friend but most of all a man of letters, well, emails in this case. This book is the first collection of selected emails that Ian wrote over the period of a year. Find out what happened when his wife tried to eat a well known adhesive, when Ian bought some wasp flavoured soup from the supermarket, the time that he accidentally sent some very personal emails to a string of unsuspecting strangers and the hilarious incident when he couldn't find a pen when he really needed one to note the address of a business associate. The emails contained within this book chart the highs and lows of an unforgettable year! This book will make you laugh, it will make you cry, it will change your life! You won't be able to put it down, literally.
