To Mattie Wilcox, Brad Sumners has always been the epitome of perfect—the perfect football star, the perfect poker player, the perfect high school crush. But who knew crushes could last so long? Because all these years later, Mattie's still as hung up on Brad as she was when she was younger. She knows she has to get over him...but how?

When Brad suddenly shows up on her doorstep asking for help, Mattie knows what she has to do. After all, she's never been one to turn away a friend in need... and with luck, she'll take care of a few needs of her own. This is her chance to get Brad out of her system for good. And she's sure they'll both find the experience perfectly satisfying....
