Wolf Warriors (Wolfslayer Book 1) Mark Fleming

584 A.D. The Roman Empire has fallen. The British Isles have entered the Dark Ages and are consumed by war. Vikings pillage the coasts. Anglo-Saxons invade from Germany, seizing land from the native Celts, forging a brutal new England with bloodied swords.

Paega, a Saxon shaman, has perfected the dark magic of shape-shifting, transforming warriors into werewolves who crave Celtic flesh. Kady, a Celt, is a druid's daughter. When a werewolf butchers her father, she inherits mystical powers. But Paega will stop at nothing to annihilate the cult of the druids, because only they can withstand his evil sorcery.

The survival of her tribe rests on Kady's young shoulders. She must master her gifts before the Anglo-Saxons drive her people into the sea. But the warriors now hunting her are deadly. Every full moon the forests are pierced with their demonic howling. The wolf warriors have the scent of druid blood.
