Seven years after a global war has devastated mankind, THE OUTZONE is a quasi-sovereign tract of land in what was once America. Ungoverned and ungovernable, it is an unregulated and fragmented society where gangs, clans, and tribal groupings exist in a few small cities and self-proclaimed fiefdoms.

Too dangerous for most, but not Frank Brogan.

When three Outzone bandits cross into New Haven and murder his wife and daughter, Lieutenant Frank Brogan quits his specially-trained police unit to hunt them down. Leaving the safety of the Strata State, Brogan enters the Outzone and travels to its de facto capital, Winter's Edge, where he picks up the bandits' trail. In a violent city controlled by rival gangs, he needs to use all his hard-won skills as a police officer and war veteran to survive.

It isn't long before Brogan's quest takes him out of the city and deeper into the lawless territory. Can he survive encounters with the nomadic tribes that roam the Outzone's mountains and plains to finally confront the men who murdered his family?
