Nadie lo conoce (Gotland) (Spanish Edition) Mari Jungstedt

El comisario Anders Knutas, tras la resolución de su anterior caso, en el que estuvo personalmente implicado, está agobiado y deprimido. Por desgracia, no va a poder disfrutar todavía de su merecido descanso. En efecto, un grupo de arqueólogos está excavando en un viejo poblado vikingo, aprovechando que es verano en Gotland. Pero un grave peligro, del que no sospechan nada, se ciñe sobre el grupo. Todo empieza con el descubrimiento, por parte de dos niñas que pasean por el bosque, del cadáver decapitado de un caballo. Parece ser que el asesino, obedeciendo a un antiguo ritual, ha torturado al animal antes de llevarse su cabeza y su sangre. El asunto adquiere tintes realmente dramáticos cuando desaparece Martina, una estudiante de arqueología holandesa. El verano del comisario Knutas no ha hecho más que empezar...

El Periódico de Cataluña
